STATEMENT OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

John Adams Virtual School declares, "...The High School develops the whole person by nurturing in students a sense of responsibility..." In a faith community we are called to live our values and to discern between what is right and what is wrong. As an academic institution, honesty is one of our highest values. If we are to develop as an integrated people, all members of the community need to celebrate the moral honesty of others and challenge behaviors of those who violate the community's academic integrity. We define a lack of academic integrity to be dishonest or deceitful behavior shown by people who gain an unfair academic advantage through, but not limited to, some of the following methods; plagiarism; copying another's work when it is not explicitly encouraged by the teacher; providing details of a specific test or quiz before, during, or after the event; the use of unauthorized aids on tests, such as cheat sheets or programmed calculators; or recycling/reusing a previous paper or project of one's own or another's without the explicit consent of the teacher .

All who choose the JAVS community and our Mission will be held accountable for actions that violate our sense of academic integrity. Teachers, students, and parents are responsible for maintaining this principle. Consequences for violations range from zero credit given for graded assignments/tests to expulsion from the school community. Moral honor is expected at JAVS and dishonest is any portion of your program is not permitted. All students' must sign and fax this statement to the Registrar's Office at (866) 366-4217 or mail to the address above to be included in your student file.

I understand and agree to follow John Adams Virtual School's Academic Policies.
